APPENDIX B

ANALYSIS OF PRE-MEETING SURVEYS AND SURVEY INSTRUMENT

The New Mexico Tribal-State Judicial Consortium

SUMMARY OF PRE-MEETING SURVEYS

Question #1: What are the top three pressing issues you have encountered relating to Tribal-State Court relations in your region?

JURISDICTION

- Jurisdiction for enforcement (3); difference between BIA and Tribal jurisdiction
- Jurisdiction for children
- Jurisdiction, cooperation, MOUs for State to prosecute in Tribal Court
- Refusal/reluctance of Navajo Police Dept. to serve State Court orders and provide a return of service
- Lack of consistency among State Judges in recognizing and respecting Tribal Court cases in progress
- Status offenses on off-the-Reservation school campuses
- Child custody issues in inter-Tribal land inter-racial divorces
- State Judges and Hearing Officers in each case should ask whether anyone is Native American and enrolled/domiciled on Tribal land
- Cases filed in both State and Tribal Courts – forum shopping
- State Court officers not aware of the efforts of the Consortium

PASSPORT

- Not all Tribal Courts have adopted the cover page (3)
- Service of Protection orders (2)
- Coordination of forms between Tribal and State Courts
- Role of law enforcement
- Service of restraining orders
- Educate police departments on the first page
- Police Officers will not give credit to Tribal DV orders; i.e. city/State officers will not arrest offender off the Reservation for Tribal protection order; need more education

COMMUNICATIONS

- Lack of Communication between Courts and agencies (2)
- Lack of understanding regarding culture and logistics
- Delays in processing cases; inability to obtain court documents
- Inability to obtain police reports in timely fashion
- Turnover in Tribal courts
- Lack of communication on both ends
- No support

OTHER ISSUES

- Implementation of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (SORNA) by Tribes and State
- Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA), active efforts, lack of Native foster parents
- Lack of Drivers license revocation for DUIs on the Reservation
- Availability of services
- Non-Tribal employees at casinos
- Representation and appointment process of members on the Consortium (2)
- Difference between the Consortium and SWITCA

Question #2: Are there any special topics you would like covered at training programs that the Consortium could plan? If so, please describe.

JURISDICTION

- Tribal Court jurisdiction over spouses when one is Native and one is not
- Full faith and credit regarding protection orders; service of process
- Registration of Tribal Sex Offenders in State/Federal cases
- Protocols for registering Native sex offenders prosecuted in State and Federal courts
- MOUs for prosecution
- Collaboration between State and Tribes
- On-site training for Governors/Tribal Councils on legal issues impacting Tribes
- Update as to other Tribes using or implementing and supportive of orders
- ICWA, concurrent jurisdiction, intervention and transfer to Tribal Court
- Getting police officers cross-deputized, maybe through a memorandum of agreement between the State, counties and Tribal
- Need BIA police certification for all police to engage in criminal investigations and arrests on Tribal lands and charge Tribal or federal complaints/prosecutions
- Service of process of victims on Tribal lands

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE/FAMILY ISSUES

- Divorce and legal separation (3)
- Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, Stalking (3)
- Custody (2), including in inter-Tribal/racial divorce cases
- Lack of domestic/sexual violence training received by the judiciary; must be mandatory; making very dangerous decisions

CHILDREN/JUVENILE

- Enforcement of Child Support orders (2)
- Child Welfare/ICWA
- Child Sexual Abuse
- Native American foster parent recruitment

VARIOUS OTHER ISSUES

- Judicial Canons of Ethics
- Licensing Attorneys to appear in Tribal Court
- Handling of property

Question #3: Are there any outside speakers you would like to make presentations at Consortium meetings on issues of current interest?

- Pablo Padilla [Nordhaus] update on Indian law (2)
- Sharon Pino, Governor's DV Czar on current DV and stalking legislation
- University of New Mexico (UNM) Law School Professor Christine Zuni-Cruz on jury trials and their cost
- UNM Law School Professor John LaVelle, Director of the Indian Law Program
- DV victims, Police Officers
- New Mexico Attorney General
- District Attorneys
- Temporary legal child custody-guardianships
- Power of attorney for financial transactions
- American Indian Law Center (AILC)/Southwest Intertribal Court of Appeals (SWITCA)

Question #4: Would it be useful to you if the Consortium compiled sample operational materials for use in your day-to-day work (i.e. sample orders, agreements, etc.)?

- Tribal samples that are not modeled on State orders, agreements (2)
- Especially helpful if samples were in electronic format
- Anything is always welcomed, especially if it can help provide better services
- Uniform page for victims
- Tribal materials should be done by Tribal attorneys or SWITCA
- Yes, especially the continued development of uniform form to be used in all courts a victim deals with

Question #5: Have you encountered any difficulties relating to the enforcement of the following types of orders from State and/or Tribal Courts?

Domestic Violence Orders?	3
Custody Orders?	5
Other Orders?	6 (listed below)

- Commitment orders for State mental health facilities
- Child support
- Bench Warrants
- Restraining orders from Tribes or other States
- Exclusion orders
- Traffic

Other Comments:

- Tribal courts don't enforce any orders (2), no service of process
- Enforcing State custody orders on Tribal lands
- Questions regarding enforcement of DV and custody orders in both Tribes and State

- Tribal courts do nothing about enforcement and also do not provide service of process
- We have heard from our clerk that orders are not enforced from one pueblo to the next or pueblo to state
- Define, clarify restraining orders from other States and/or Tribal Courts

Question #6: How would you assess State and Tribal Court relationships in your area in terms of the following:

1. Accessibility	Excellent	1	Good	8	Fair	7	Poor	6
2. Communication	Excellent	1	Good	5	Fair	11	Poor	6
3. Working together	Excellent	1	Good	5	Fair	8	Poor	8
4. Creating Solutions	Excellent	0	Good	5	Fair	7	Poor	10

Question #7: In the space below, please provide any additional comments or suggestions you may have.

- State Court hearing officers don't recognize Tribal orders
- Presence of Tribal Court judges at the [annual Judicial] Conclave is very positive
- More community education on DWI laws and domestic violence
- Need to break down jurisdictional prosecutorial borders
- State judges themselves may be supportive of and give Full Faith and Credit to Tribal orders; however, their subordinate staff do not. Perhaps training for State hearing officers, regarding working with and/or establishing working relationships with Tribal courts would be helpful
- Not only Tribal, but District and Magistrate Courts collaboration
- Why is it so difficult to get police reports?

Please check the discipline you represent:

- We were never invited to this Consortium—invitations to all Navajo Judges would be good; cross-commissioning of officer issues need to be talked about
- Invite all Tribal court judges (Navajo Nation) since State of AZ is utilizing the cover sheet; also include Captains with Navajo Nation to orientate them of the implementation of this process
- Need more other topics that relate to domestic violence: stalking, abuse of texting
- We need to discuss child welfare/ICWA issues
- A big round of applause to all the Judges that took the time to be here; hats off to the Zuni Tribal Court for shutting down the court today, so that they could be here. I was sorry to see that none of the Gallup District Court Judges were here
- Have snacks between breaks; no more train sounds; less group meetings and more educating
- To offer more training opportunities
- The meeting was good; the break-up of groups to work together to address issues and identify new methods was very helpful; highly recommend that strategy for future meetings
- Probation violation and defendants move out of jurisdiction; court (Navajo Nation) issues because defendant moves to city
- Jurisdictional issues would be one topic; possible trainings for programs (in whole); communicate between neighboring towns and reservations

- Have the meeting held in a bigger facility, as you know more and more individuals are attending these consortiums so it would be better to sit in amore comfortable place. But other than that, it was very interesting to me on my part. Thanks!
- Quiet area, big room, snacks
- Sex offender registration and with judicial view especially Tribal judges
- Room, sound level, barriers around the room; otherwise well prepared
- Continue the smaller break-out groups; great communication
- Have everyone switch roles in writing and presenting; noticed certain individuals wre very rigid in taking turns with tasks, or even speaking with their own opinions
- Maybe more time; in our group, we got off track so many times; group exercise was very interesting from different fields
- Batterer intervention programs: protect, promote, prevent, partnership
- Update on Adam Walsh Act, status with State
- Please include individuals from DV shelters
- Quiet meeting place with less noise outside and distractions; lunch provided was good because it keeps participants in the meeting; need more presenters rather than break-out sessions
- I think there needs to be training or meeting between the actual police offices for the State, city, county and Tribe that are enforcing orders
- Provide packets to participants on all areas being covered
- Bring in a presenter to present on related topics; have the meeting where there is less distraction and more open space; bring in an individuals to tell about real life stories (success stories); it gives people something to think about
